ACCESSIBILITY TO MEDIA, ENTERTAINMENT AND CULTURAL HERITAGE: HISTORIES, PARADIGMS AND REVOLUTIONS

SOCIAL PROGRAM

In parallel with the scientific program, the conference schedule includes a series of convivial and cultural moments designed to enrich participants' experience. Informal opportunities to engage with the local area, discover Macerata's landmark venues and create new connections.

May 15 — 7 pm

Wine tasting at the Museum of Palazzo Buonaccorsi

At the end of the afternoon workshops, those already in the city are invited to a wine tasting in the Museum of Palazzo Buonaccorsi, with wines from Cantina Sant'Isidoro, accompanied by a visit to the noble halls of the palace, home to the Civic Museums and the city's art gallery. A symbolic venue in Macerata's commitment to cultural accessibility and inclusion.

May 16 — 1:30 pm

Shared Lunch provided by the conference

A convivial lunch provided by the conference will take place at Signore te ne ringrazi, a restaurant located right in front of the conference venue, offering local dishes in an informal and welcoming atmosphere.

May 16 — 9 pm

Accessible Concert at the Sferisterio Arena

The day will end with an accessible concert in the Sala Cesanelli at the Sferisterio, Macerata's symbolic monument, featuring the Duo Zen–Miccoli performing music by Schumann, Brahms, Fauré and Boulanger.
